Lilly Endowment Community Scholarship Program
Study Off-Campus Program Eligibility Review

Turn in at least one semester prior to semester off campus

All scholars wanting to apply their Lilly Community Scholarship to an off-campus study program are required to submit this form to Independent Colleges of Indiana prior to signing any contracts or paying required deposits for participation in an off-campus program. If the program is eligible, your Lilly Endowment Community Scholarship will cover tuition and academic fees billed through your university/college up to the cost of the semester tuition at your home campus. Travel, food, lodging, and other costs are not covered by this scholarship program. The student and the community foundation will be notified of the off-campus study program's eligibility for scholarship funding via email.
